NATIONAL BOARD EXAMINATION AT MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY

The American Dental Association is in the process of establishing testing centers for the July 11-12, 2005 National Board Dental Examination. There will be one center located in Wisconsin at Marquette University.

MOTION: Ms. Kosydar Dreves moved, seconded by Mr. Carroll, to nominate Ms. Ficks to assist with the administration of examinations at the Marquette testing center on July 11-12, 2005. Motion carried unanimously.

DOE CASES

Dr. Barrette inquired of Mr. Ryan about feedback received that an unconfirmed board member had obtained case information from DRL. Mr. Ryan indicated that he would look into this allegation and report back to the Board.

SUMMARY REPORTS ON PENDING COURT CASES, DISCIPLINARY CASES, ADMINISTRATIVE RULES AND LEGISLATION
KRAHENBUHL v. WISCONSIN DENTISTRY BOARD

Mr. Schuh reported on Krahenbuhl v. Wisconsin Dentistry Board. He stated that the circuit court judge upheld the Board's order. The circuit court has stayed the order pending appeal. The Board inquired as to whether they could challenge the stay.

MOTION: Dr. Gill moved, seconded by Ms. Kosydar Dreves, that the Board sends a letter to AAG Robert Hunter asking him to petition the appropriate court for relief from the Stay of Discipline in the matter of Krahenbuhl v. Wisconsin Dentistry Examining Board. Motion carried unanimously.

RULE DRAFT REVIEW
CR 04-095 WIS. ADMIN. CODE
DEN 11 ANESTHESIA/CONSCIOUS SEDATION RULE

Jacquelynn Rothstein addressed the Board to review and discuss additional changes to rule draft CR 04-095, Administrative Code DEN 11. Ms. Rothstein will make the Board's recommended changes and distribute to the Board members.

WISCONSIN REGULATORY DIGEST DISCUSSION

The Board reviewed draft articles for the Wisconsin Regulatory Digest.

Dr. Barrette discussed the importance of discipline and licensee information being available and mailed in written form rather than posting the information on the Department's website. The Board noted that posting discipline actions in the newsletter has a positive impact on deterring other licensees from unprofessional conduct.

Ms. Taylor stated that licensees should become accustomed to using the website.

MOTION: Dr. Strand moved, seconded by Dr. Gill, to request that the Department allocate funds for the printing and mailing of the Wisconsin Regulatory Digest. Motion carried unanimously.

MOTION: Dr. Gill moved, seconded by Mr. Carroll, to approve the Digest articles as written. Motion carried unanimously.
